Jaguar E-type SI 3,8 Coupé 1962 LHD Chassis: 885865 It was already clear from the launch in 1961, but today, 50 years later, everybody agrees that the Jaguar E-type 3,8 Coupé is THE Jaguar styling icon! This wow-sensation doesnt stop with the cars styling-beauty, it also continues when driving a 3,8 E-type... Just a superb drivers sportscar! This particular E-type Coupé was sold new in the USA, where in the mid-eighties she benefitted from a full restoration. The previous owner writes on XKE-data the following comment: It was shown twice by me and my friend both in Potomac, Md. and at the 1986 Newport Jaguar Festival. (Won Best in class (Class 5) in Newport. The car is very close to my heart and I'd love to locate any info and history on it since it was in my care. After some years in Italy where the last owner continued to pamper this E-type, I got the chance to buy this top-quality sportscar. Comes with Jaguar Heritage Certificate and Italian registration documents. Ready for a summer of exhilarating motoring fun, this rolling sculpture could be in your garage for an attractive:
