Triumph Roadster 1800

1947

Gallery

This charming Triumph Roadster was very recently totally restored in Holland. The car has now a smashing appearance in raspberry red with beige leather trim and black dubble duck hood. From whatever angle you look at this tourer, every detail is sparkling and in fact the whole car can only be described as : concours. On the road this Triumph drives as good as she looks, we have absolutely no shortcomings to report. This immediately post-war open Triumph is the ideal cruising vehicle for the nostalgic Triumph enthusiast. One can easily see that during the restoration much more money has been spent on this car than the price for which this beauty is now offered for sale. A real steal at 35.000 euro.
